Judiciary Offers Free Seminar on Credit and Bankruptcy

The Hawai'i State Judiciary is sponsoring a free, informational session, "Credit and Bankruptcy," from 12:00 noon to 1 p.m. on Wednesday, April 30, 2003, in the Supreme Court courtroom, 417 South King Street.

Attorneys Walter Davison and Ted Pettit will help participants understand their legal rights and responsibilities as debtors, describe how to respond to creditors, suggest options for dealing with problem debt, and provide other details concerning credit and bankruptcy.

Davison is a partner in the law firm of Goodsill Anderson Quinn & Stifel, where he concentrates his practice in the area of bankruptcy law. He received his law degree from Boalt Hall School of Law, University of California.

Pettit is a director with Case Bigelow & Lombardi, where he concentrates his practice in the areas of bankruptcy, collections, and business reorganization. He received his law degree from the William S. Richardson School of Law, University of Hawai'i.

The "Lunch 'n' Learn the Law" program is a series of free informational seminars for the general public featuring topics relating to specific areas of the law and the courts. Volunteer presenters include judges, attorneys, court officials, and other subject-matter experts.

For more information, contact the Judiciary Public Affairs Office at (808) 539-4909.
